

Dr. Justin Forde is a board-certified gastroenterologist with Atlanta Gastroenterology Associates. In addition to general procedures like colonoscopy or upper endoscopy, he is specially trained in the following advanced endoscopic procedures and performs them at area hospitals.

ADVANCED PROCEDURES

- Diagnostic and therapeutic ERCP
 - Biliary/pancreatic strictures, stones, leaks, pancreas divisum
 - Spyglass, biliary RFA
 - Ampullectomy
 - Rendezvous, hepaticogastrostomy, choledochoduodenostomy
- Diagnostic and therapeutic EUS (upper and lower)
 - Staging and biopsy of malignancies and sub-epithelial lesions
 - Fiducial placement
 - Celiac plexus block and neurolysis
 - Gastric varices (coiling/glue)
 - Liver biopsy, venous gradient measurement
 - Drainage of peripancreatic and post-surgical collections
 - EUS directed transgastric ERCP (EDGE)
 - EUS-guided gallbladder drainage
- Obesity management
 - Endoscopic sleeve gastropasty (ESG)
 - Transoral Outlet Reduction (TORe)
 - Endoscopic balloon placement
- Motility-related disorders, GERD directed therapies, gastroparesis
 - POEM (esophageal, gastric, Zenker's and other diverticula)
 - Pneumatic dilation for achalasia/strictures
 - Transoral Incisionless Fundoplication (TIF®)
 - Anti-reflux mucosectomy (ARMS)
 - Esophageal manometry, endoflip
 - Bravo® pH study and pH-impedance testing
- Premalignant lesions/polyps and early-stage cancers
 - Resection of lesions: EMR, ESD, EFTR and STER
 - Barrett's treatment (RFA, cryotherapy, resection)
- Enteral access
 - Enteral stenting, EUS-guided gastroenterostomy
 - Balloon-assisted enteroscopy (antegrade/retrograde)
- Other
 - Post-surgical fistulas/leaks, endovacuum therapy
 - Feeding tubes: PEG, PEJ, PEG-J, NJ